God Equips the Called

A Testimony by Jacob Woo

"O taste and see that the Lord is good:
blessed is the man that trusteth in him."
~ Psalm 34:8

Born into a Christian Home

I had the blessing of being born into a Christian home so from a young age my parents taught me about God and the Christian faith.

I was baptised as an infant thus my parents made a promise to God to raise me up in the fear and knowledge of Him.

We would attend church as a family and there I participated in various children's ministry activities such as Sunday School and Junior Singspiration which help build my knowledge of Jesus and the Bible.

Our family settled at Bible-Presbyterian Church of WA and in that time my father served in the church session.

God Became Real

I recall a particular Sunday, when I was 10 years old, during children's singing. The leader asked everyone "Who has asked Jesus to come into their heart and be their personal Saviour?"

I hesitated to raise my hand as I realised I was not exactly sure of my salvation even though I knew in my head what I had to do to be saved.

In the days after, this question plagued my mind and so I decided to say a sincere prayer to God to ask Him to forgive my sins and for Jesus to be my personal Saviour.

There was no special over-night transformation in my life but from that point on my personal relationship with God became real and my Christian walk began.

Bible stories became Bible lessons and prayer became communicating with my Lord.

To follow on from there I decided to complete the Basic Bible Knowledge class and re-affirm my faith when I was 13 years old.

God Was Gracious

Even though I was saved, I had many sinful habits and struggled with my new and old nature. But God was gracious and continued to mould me to be more Christ-like little by little.

I have come to learn of God's goodness and faithfulness through His working in different events, circumstances and answered prayers.

As my faith grew, so did my service for the Lord. I participated in church ministries which led to me serving in the Youth Fellowship as a committee member and president. I also served as a choir member and conductor and Sunday school teacher.

Serving at Covenant

I began worshipping and serving at Covenant Bible-Presbyterian Church from its inception in 2008 and have had the privilege of being part of this congregation since.

I got married in November 2012 and together with my wife Merilyn, we have served in the Junior Fellowship and in other areas of the church.

I thank God for the many folks whom we can call brothers and sisters in Christ at Covenant Church.

God Equips the Called

I hope to be able to minister to the needs of the worshipers through the office of a deacon.

When I was first approached to consider standing for the diaconate I was initially quite fearful and thought I am too young and ill equipped. Through Godly counsel, encouragement and prayer, I was reminded that God equips the called.

With that, I pray if I should be elected into the session, I will serve with the best of my ability and to the Glory of God. I write this testimony as a testament of my journey with the Lord so far and in thankfulness to Him who has saved me. Amen.

"My Choice"

I want my breakfast served at eight
With ham and eggs upon the plate
A well-broiled steak I'll eat at one
And dine again when day is done.
I want an ultramodern home
And in each room a telephone;
Soft carpets, too, upon the floors
And pretty drapes to grace the doors.
A cozy place of lovely things,
Like easy chairs with inner springs,
And then, I'll get a nice T.V.
- Of course, I'm careful what I see.
I want my wardrobe, too, to be
Of neatest, finest quality,
With latest style in suit and vest
Why should not Christians have the best?

But then the Master I can hear
In no uncertain voice, so clear:
"I bid you come and follow Me,
The lowly Man of Galilee."
"Birds of the air have made their nest
And foxes in their holes find rest,
But I can offer you no bed;
No place have I to lay my head."

In shame I hung my head and cried,
How could I spurn the Crucified?
Could I forget the way He went,
The sleepless nights in prayer He spent?
For forty days without a bite,
Alone He fasted day and night;
Despised, rejected - on He went,
and did not stop till veil He rent!
A man of sorrows and of grief
No earthly friend to bring relief;
"Smitten of God," the prophet said
Mocked, beaten, bruised, His blood ran red.

If He be God, and died for me,
No sacrifice too great can be
For me; a mortal man, to make;
I'll do it all for Jesus' sake.
Yes, I will tread the path He trod,
No other way will please my God,
So, henceforth, this my choice shall be,
My choice for all eternity.

Q. 10. What are the personal properties of the three persons in the Godhead?

A. It is proper to the Father to beget the Son, and to the Son to be begotten of the Father, and to the Holy Ghost to proceed from the Father and the Son from all eternity.

Q. 11. How doth it appear that the Son and the Holy Ghost are God equal with the Father?

A. The Scriptures manifest that the Son and the Holy Ghost are God equal with the Father, ascribing unto them such names, attributes, works, and worship, as are proper to God only.
